Dear Ms./Mrs. Mostoles:

As part of the celebration of the 58th founding anniversary of Trinity University of Asia, the Media and Communication Department and the Languages and Contemporary Human Studies Department under the College of Arts, Sciences and Education of Trinity University of Asia will conduct the National Cultural and Language Education Conference (NaCLE Con) on February 19 and 20, 2021 with the theme "Globalization and Nationalism: Rationalizing the Need for Culture and Language Education in the Current Virtual Landscape." The conference aims to bring together leading academic scientists, researchers, and scholars to exchange and share their experience and research results on relevant aspects of Communication, Culture and Multilingualism.

In light of this, on behalf of the conference committee, we would like to invite you, your faculty members, and your students to register and to participate in the event. Registration is free for all participants. Certificates of participation will be given to those who will attend the conference. Attached in this letter is the event poster where the registration details are indicated. For any inquiries or concerns, you may contact the conference secretariats at naclecon@tua.edu.ph Thank you and we hope to see you in the conference.

Very truly yours,

Al Ryanne G. Gatcho, PhD
