BACKGROUND

In 1999, in its resolution 54/120, the General Assembly endorsed the recommendation made by the World Conference of Ministers Responsible for Youth (Lisbon, 8-12 August 1998) that 12 August be declared International Youth Day. The Assembly recommended that public information activities be organized to support the Day as a way to promote better awareness of the World Programme of Action for Youth, adopted by the General Assembly in 1995 through resolution 50/81 (Department of Economic and Social Affairs for Youth).

Series of activities are lined up leading to the month of October for the month of United Nations celebration. One of which is the International Youth Day (IYD) which is celebrated annually on 12 August "to bring youth issues to the attention of the international community and celebrate the potential of youth as partners in today's global society.”

22nd INTERNATIONAL YOUTH DAY

The United Nations Association of the Philippines (UNAP), through its youth arm, the United Nations Youth Association of the Philippines (UNYAP) is organizing the 22nd International Youth Day scheduled on August 12-14 (Afternoon Sessions: 3:00 PM onwards), together with its lead organization, Batang Star Philippines, and other partner organizations.

The event is going to be a 3-day fully virtual with the theme, “Transforming Food Systems: Youth Innovation for Human and Planetary Health.” It focuses on the United Nation’s Sustainable Development Goals (UNSDG) with our local tagline, I AM Youth for SDGs. (Innovator, Ambassador, Mover: Youth for Sustainable Development Goals.

The 22nd IYD virtual celebration focuses on the four pillars of sustainability, namely, Social, Economic, Environmental, and Cultural with the thematic interconnectivity framework of the seventeen (17) UN Sustainable Development Goals.

MEETING OBJECTIVES AND EXPECTED OUTCOMES

The event gives an opportunity to “celebrate and mainstream young peoples’ voices, actions and initiatives, as well as their meaningful, universal and equitable engagement.” It is an event by the youth and for the youth, output-driven in the pursuit of Sustainable Development goals.
