Dear Director Eclar,

The Don Honorio Ventura State University (DHVSU) envisions itself to produce globally competitive professionals for sustainable national and international competitiveness through continuous innovation. Realizing this vision, the University intends to further strengthen its research endeavors through its Research Management Office (RMO) whose goal is to be the center for knowledge-generation and technology development in the region toward the improvement of the individual's living condition globally. One of its major goals is to develop, utilize and promote new knowledge in Science, Technology, Engineering, Humanities, Arts, and Education.

In this view, the RMO in collaboration with the College of Education, which was awarded as the Center of Development in 2015, would like to request from your good office an endorsement of the university's 1st National Conference on Teacher Education with the theme, "Diversified Transformative Research in Teacher Education through Sustained Access and Flexibility," that will be held on December 14, 2021. It is the objective of this Conference to unite faculty researchers across diversity to be adept, equipped and transformative in educational research toward greater access and flexibility. Target participants shall be coming from the faculty members/researchers from the Department of Education and Higher Education Institutions in both public and private sectors all over the country.

With great pleasure and confidence, we would also like to inform you that the University has invited renowned Keynote and Plenary Speakers namely, Dr. Don Eliseo Lucero-Prisno III from the University of London and Dr. Bert J. Tuga, the President of the Philippine Normal University.

Furthermore, may we request you to deliver a message during the said national conference.

We are hoping for your favorable response.

Very Truly Yours,
