REGIONAL MEMORANDUM

No. 278, s. 2022

MAPPING AND PROFILING OF PROSPECTIVE INDUSTRIES WHERE SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL LEARNERS CAN DO WORK IMMERSION

To: Schools Division Superintendents
Schools Governance Office Division (SGOD) Chiefs
Education Program Supervisors in charge of Partnership and Linkages and Senior High School
All Others Concerned

1. Capitalizing on the importance of identifying potential industries partners where our Senior High School (SHS) learners can do work immersion, this Office, through the Curriculum and Learning Management Division, shall conduct Mapping of Industries within the locality that are willing to accept work immersion activity among our SHS Technical Vocational Livelihood (TVL) students for next and the succeeding years. It is encouraged that our partner SDOs shall conduct face-to-face mapping activity on May 26-27, 2022, and submit the consolidated reports on or before June 3, 2022, for the basis of Stakeholders Convergence with Industries activity on the schedule to be announced later.
2. The activity aims to:
  - a. identify industries that are willing to accommodate SHS immersion activity;
  - b. identify the specializations that are available for accommodation ; and
  - c. finalize the minimum requirements for the face-to-face work immersion activity.
3. The participants in this activity will include one Division Education Program Supervisor (DEPS) in charge of the partnership program and DEPS in charge of the SHS.
4. Enclosure No. 1 - Template on Needed Data is attached for information and guidance.
5. Wide dissemination of and compliance with this Memorandum is desired.
