No. 2893

All Schools Division Superintendents
Region 3 – Central Luzon

We are sending this letter to inform you that the Department of Education Regional Office III, including its officials and employees, particularly the undersigned, is NOT soliciting any financial donations from private organizations and individuals.

This Office is not connected with any person or group making representations of our Department and our officials collecting money for whatever purpose being mentioned.

Our Regional Partnerships Focal Person, Mr. Ghinno Jhep Paquing, is the only authorized representative of this Office as regards possible support and donations directed towards the collective efforts of ensuring the safe return of our learners in our schools in the region under the Brigada Eskwela Program.

For any suspicious incidents which you may have encountered, please inform our Office immediately so we can properly address this concern.

Very truly yours,
