Local government unit officials and other stakeholders may also be invited.

Share a Book Drive. Each school, learning center and DepEd Office shall have a designated box for storybook donations for the month of November to December. Donated storybooks shall be given to select learners.

Reading Pantry. Each school and learning center shall set up an accessible reading pantry for all learners with a variety of reading books. Each learner shall be given a Reading Challenge Log to write the title and author of the fifteen (15) books they have read including their answer in each reading episode.

Book Talk. A 10-minute each day of English or Filipino time shall be devoted to the learners sharing a book they have read from the Reading Pantry and showcasing their Reading Challenge Log.

Araw ng Pagbasa Challenge. On November 28, all learners, teachers, and school officials will do the nationwide synchronized reading at exactly 9:00 am Philippine Standard Time (PST).

- ii. Voice mechanics
 - iii. Level of confidence
 - iv. Number of words read accurately
4. Poster Making
1. The teacher shall read a storybook to the learners.
 2. Each learner shall make a poster showing the message of the story listened to. This may be done during the MAPEH class or at home.
 3. Posters shall be displayed in the school's Reading Pantry Corner.

Reading Ambassador. Schools and learning centers may invite teachers and other school officials, parents, and other stakeholders to be Reading Ambassadors for a week. Our Reading Ambassadors shall be chosen for their love of reading and their enthusiasm to share this with others.

The Reading Ambassador shall read a story to a group of learners in organized reading activities. This may also be done through local TV and radio station. A national Reading Ambassador shall also be featured every week on the official FB page of the Department.

Part of the job of a Reading Ambassador is to encourage others in the school to read more, and find their own love of reading. Another role the Reading Ambassadors take is making sure others get to know about new books and all things related to reading. They do this through:

- Learning about new reading technology and how this can encourage a love of reading. They can then show and tell the rest of the school all about anything new that they have tried out and liked.
- The Reading Ambassadors read to other classes and individuals to help show what great reading role models they can look up to.
- They will pick and recommend books for children in all year groups to highlight the range and types of books we can all get in school for everyone to enjoy.
- Promotion of reading material.
