Dr. Zenia G. Mostoles
Schools Division Superintendent
Department of Education-Bulacan Division

Dear Dr. Mostoles,

Greetings of good health and cheer!

Scholastic would like to invite you and your K-12 Reading/English Educators of Bulacan Division Schools (Public and Private) to a free webinar on November 29, 2022 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

We understand that among schools' pressing concerns is how to resolve the learning poverty experienced by our students, which was exacerbated by school closures due to the pandemic. In this crucial time, all hands should be on deck to move the quality of education forward; and Scholastic, as your education partner would like to be of help.

All members of the academic team may register. There is no limit on the number of participants. Kindly have participants from your division register through this link: <https://forms.office.com/r/9RDycsKaLS>

All our Symposia participants will get a pass to the 2023 Scholastic Education Summit on February, 2023.

We shall send you details of the Education Summit as the event nears.

Please keep healthy and well. We will see you soon!
