1. The office announces the conduct of Center For Human Research Development Foundation (CHRDF), Inc., Professional Development Programs for Teachers in accordance with DepEd Order No. 001 s.2020 articulating the Guidelines for NEAP Recognition of Professional Development Programs and Courses for Teachers and School Leaders, an online course training to all Beginning Teachers of SDO Bulacan to be held via Zoom platform on December 7 to 9, 2022.

2. The title of the training is “Reimagining Education Through Effective Curriculum Implementation” with the different courses that aims to establish the following objectives:

- a) Show clear understanding on how the curriculum responds to students’ various learning needs and contexts by performing an interdisciplinary approach in unpacking learning standards and competencies.
- b) Change the role of a traditional teacher who just delivers content to being a content curator of learning in purposively designing and unfolding of the specific essential competencies set by the Department of Education in self-learning modules and lessons.
- c) Apply various strategies in the alignment of specific learning objectives, instructional activities and assessment from the Most Essential Learning Competencies (MELCs) using integrated or emergent curriculum approach.
- d) Contextualize the Learning Plans to MELC outcomes cognizant of the remote learning constraints and difficulties by incorporating learner-centered principles and research-based practices.
- e) Create instructional plans that are learner-centered by nature to enhance students’ engagement in the learning process.

3. All Beginning Teachers are requested to register in this link <https://forms.gle/NSbpFqCmuNCewPCX6> using their DepEd email on or before December 7, 2022.
