Hello!

The Certification in Technology for Teaching and Learning Series is comprised of three (3) MOOCs. The other two MOOCs are:

- Introduction to Technology for Teaching and Learning (TTL1)
- Teaching and Learning Using Modern Information and Communication Technologies (TTL2)
- Blended Teaching and Learning Using Open Educational Resources (TTL3)

After completing the three MOOCs, the learner will be awarded the "Certification in Technology for Teaching and Learning". The three MOOCs were based on the Commission on Higher Education (CHED)-approved "Technology for Teaching and Learning" (TTL1) curriculum; with technical and funding assistance from SEAMEO and UNESCO. The UP Open University (UPOU) spearheaded the development of the Open Educational Resources (OERs) based on the content of the curriculum and which were used in the development of the MOOCs in this Certification Series.

Please take note of the schedule below:

- Introduction to Technology for Teaching and Learning (TTL1) - 13 Mar-14 Apr 2023
- Teaching and Learning Using Modern Information and Communication Technologies (TTL2) - 2 May-2 Jun 2023
- Blended Teaching and Learning Using Open Educational Resources (TTL3) - 3 Jul-4 Aug 2023

If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know. Thanks!
