MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR

TO : ALL HEADS OF CONSTITUTIONAL BODIES, DEPARTMENTS, BUREAUS, AND AGENCIES OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS, GOVERNMENT-OWNED OR CONTROLLED CORPORATIONS WITH ORIGINAL CHARTERS, AND STATE UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES

SUBJECT : Grant of Career Service Eligibility – Preference Rating to Specific Workers in Government Agencies Based on Length of Service and Work Performance

As expressed in a number of legislative measures and as manifested in various meetings and committee hearings, there has been a persistent clamor for job regularization and promotion of some specific groups of workers in government agencies who have long been in the service and have acquired relevant and on-site work experience, knowledge, and skills in assisting the government in the performance of public functions but do not possess the appropriate civil service eligibility for a regular appointment or promotion. These specific groups include Job Order (JO), Contract of Service (COS), Casual, Contractual, Coterminous, employees holding Category III and Category IV positions, as enumerated in CSC Memorandum Circular No. 10 dated 16 April 2013, and Career service employees with first level eligibility (referred collectively as “JOCOSC6”).

Along this line, and in recognition of the valuable contributions of the JOCOSC6 workers in the effective delivery of public services, the Civil Service Commission (CSC), pursuant to its rule-making power and mandate over civil service examinations, resolved to set up a mechanism that will allow these workers to become civil service eligibles, by way of granting them additional points to their failed rating in the Career Service Examination (CSE) based on length of service and work performance, without sacrificing the quality of government service under the principle of merit and fitness.

Thus, under CSC Resolution No. 2301123 dated 07 December 2023, the Commission has resolved to adopt and prescribe the attached Guidelines on the Grant of Career Service Eligibility – Preference Rating to Specific Workers in Government Agencies Based on Length of Service and Work Performance. This policy was published in The Philippine Star on 27 January 2024 and will take effect on 12 February 2024.

Please be guided accordingly.

GUIDELINES ON THE GRANT OF CAREER SERVICE ELIGIBILITY – PREFERENCE RATING TO SPECIFIC WORKERS IN GOVERNMENT AGENCIES BASED ON LENGTH OF SERVICE AND WORK PERFORMANCE

A. BACKGROUND

As expressed in a number of legislative measures,¹ and as manifested in various meetings and committee hearings in Congress, there has been a persistent clamor for job regularization and promotion of some specific groups of workers in government agencies who have long been in the service and have acquired relevant and on-site work experience, knowledge, and skills in assisting the government in the performance of public functions but do not possess the appropriate civil service eligibility for a regular appointment or promotion. These specific groups include Job Order (JO), Contract of Service (COS), Casual, Contractual, Coterminous, employees holding Category III and Category IV positions, as enumerated in CSC Memorandum Circular No. 10 dated 16 April 2013,² and Career service employees with first level eligibility (hereinafter collectively referred to as “JOCOSC6”).

Along this line, and in recognition of the valuable contributions of the JOCOSC6 workers in the effective delivery of public services, the Civil Service Commission (CSC), pursuant to its rule-making power and mandate over civil service examinations, resolved to set up a mechanism that will allow these workers to become civil service eligibles by way of granting them additional points to their failed rating in the Career Service Examination (CSE) based on length of service and work performance, without sacrificing the quality of government service under the principle of merit and fitness.

B. RATIONALE

To qualify for the grant of CSE-PR, the applicant shall meet the following requirements:

1. he/she must have rendered or is rendering services in the government as a JOCOSC6 (whether as Job Order, Contract of Service, Casual, Contractual, Coterminal, occupying Categories III or IV position, Career service employee with first level eligibility, or a combination of any of the aforementioned), for at least ten (10) aggregate years on the date of filing of the application for the grant of CSE-PR;
2. he/she must have applied and taken the scheduled CSE, beginning with the 3 March 2024 CSE and thereafter, either CSE - Professional or CSE - Subprofessional level, whether through PPT or other test modes,¹⁴ and obtained a failed rating of not lower than 70.00;
3. he/she must have at least a Very Satisfactory (VS) performance rating, or its equivalent, in the latest/available two (2) rating periods preceding the date of filing for the grant of CSE-PR; and
4. he/she must file the application for the grant of CSE-PR using the appropriate application form (CSE-PR Application Form)¹⁵ with complete requirements within six (6) months from the date of release of the results of the CSE taken.

F. PREFERENCE RATING TO QUALIFY AS CAREER SERVICE ELIGIBLE

1. The qualified applicant for the grant of career service eligibility via CSE-PR shall be given a maximum of ten (10) points, which will be added to the failed rating, to meet the passing rate of 80.00 and become eligible. Thus, the Preference Rating that will appear in the applicant's Certificate of Eligibility (COE) shall not be higher than 80.00.

Illustration:

CSE Level	Failed Rating	Maximum CSE-PR Points to be Awarded	Rating to be Indicated in the COE
CSE – Professional	70.00	10.00	80.00
CSE – Professional	75.50	4.50	80.00
CSE – Subprofessional	78.00	2.00	80.00
CSE – Subprofessional	79.10	0.90	80.00

2. Simultaneous with the release of the CSE results, the Examination, Recruitment, and Placement Office (ERPO) shall generate the List of Candidates (LOC)¹⁶ who, based on examination rating, may be qualified for the grant of CSE-PR. The CSC

¹⁴ CSC COMEX or Other Examination Modes that the CSC may adapt, thereafter.

¹⁵ CS Form 101-CSE-PR, 07 December 2023.

¹⁶ CSE-PR Form 4 LOC, 07 December 2023. The List of Candidate (LOC) of qualified JOCOSC6 shall be generated and submitted to the CSC Regional Offices during the processing of CSE results.

Regional Offices (CSC ROs) shall be furnished a copy of the LOC as a reference in the proper evaluation of applications for CSE-PR.

3. The resulting eligibility shall be based on the level of CSE taken:
 - a. Career Service Subprofessional Eligibility (CSSE) – for qualified applicants of CSE-PR who took the CSE - Subprofessional level; and
 - b. Career Service Professional Eligibility (CSPE) – for qualified applicants of CSE-PR who took the CSE - Professional level.

Illustrative Example A (on the maximum CSE-PR points to be awarded and the resulting eligibility):

Worker A works as Administrative Assistant III (SG-9) for Government Agency X for the last fifteen (15) years and has a Career Service Subprofessional Eligibility. To be promoted to the technical position of Administrative Officer II (SG-11), which requires Career Service Professional Eligibility (CSPE), he took the 3 March 2024 CSE – Professional Level and obtained a rating of 77. Given his failed rating is not below the threshold of 70.00, his name was included in the List of Candidates (LOC) for the grant of CSE-PR. Then, Worker A applied for the grant of CSE-PR and was awarded additional CSE-PR points of 3.00 to meet the passing rate of 80.00 and obtain CSPE.

4. The resulting eligibility's date of effectivity shall be the date of approval of the Supplemental Register of Eligibles (SROE).¹⁷
5. The grant of CSE-PR shall only be availed once. The JOCOSC6 worker who applied for and was granted the CSSE shall be disqualified from applying anew for the grant of CSPE via CSE-PR.

Illustrative Example B (on the one-time availment of the grant of CSE-PR):

Worker B has no civil service eligibility but has been assigned as a COS worker to Government Agency Y for seven (7) years and Government Agency Z for three (3) years, respectively. He took the 3 March 2024 CSE – Subprofessional Level and obtained a rating of 75. Then, he applied for the grant of Career Service Subprofessional Eligibility (CSSE) via CSE-PR which was approved. He later applied and took the 11 August 2024 Career Service Examination – Professional Examination and obtained a rating of 79. Given that Worker B already has a civil service eligibility (i.e., CSSE) via CSE-PR, he can no longer apply for the grant of a Career Service Professional Eligibility via CSE-PR.

G. APPROPRIATENESS OF THE ELIGIBILITY

The appropriateness of the resulting eligibility via CSE-PR shall be the same as that of CS Professional and CS Subprofessional Eligibility.
