All Others Concerned

1. In line with one of the Department of Education's 5-point agenda: efficient learning delivery in all its forms, the implementation of the Revised K to 12 Curriculum in Key Stages 1, 2, and 3 and pursuant to the mandate of providing continuous professional development activity for our teachers, this Office announces the conduct of Division Training of the Potential Core Trainers of the School-Based Training on the Revised K to 12 Curriculum for Grades 2, 3, 5 and 8 Teachers on April 4 and 5, 2025 at Sapientia Hall, Dr. Yanga's Colleges, Inc., Bocaue, Bulacan.
2. This training focuses on strengthening facilitation techniques, deepening curriculum mastery, enhancing communication strategies, integrating instructional and digital tools, developing problem-solving skills, and fostering collaboration among facilitators to ensure effective curriculum implementation and continuous professional growth.
3. This training successfully complied with the standards and requirements following DepEd Memorandum No. 044, s. 2023 (Interim Guidelines for the Quality Assurance and Monitoring and Evaluation of NEAP Core Programs) with PD Program QA Certification No. R3-PD-2025-0017-0313. This activity aims to:
 - a. Demonstrate enhanced facilitation skills for conducting curriculum discussions and training sessions.
 - b. Apply effective communication and engagement techniques in delivering the Revised K to 12 Curriculum concepts.
 - c. Utilize appropriate instructional materials, digital tools, and interactive strategies for curriculum dissemination.
 - d. Address common challenges in curriculum implementation through case-based problem-solving.
 - e. Collaborate with fellow facilitators to ensure consistency and effectiveness in training delivery.
4. Participants in this activity are as follows:

Republic of the Philippines
