We know that values and GMRC are among the subjects that schools teach to all children, and we would like to be part of that teaching method through this wholesome-family drama movie. It will show the practical application of values and the difference between abuse and discipline, which is often overlooked by parents and teachers, and children and students. This movie also reminds us, as parents, that wrongdoing becomes normalized when children see their parents' actions, and hear their words- children are a reflection of their role models.

The movie Unspoken Letters showcases The Great Filipino Family Values: A Reminder for the New Generation. In this fast-paced world, where technology and globalization shape the lives of the younger generation, it's crucial to remind ourselves and our children of the timeless values that have long been the foundation of Filipino society. The Great Filipino Family Values are a rich heritage that provides guidance, strength, and a sense of identity. Here are key values to impart to the new generation:

1. Close Family Ties- Family extends beyond the nuclear family to closeness fosters a deep sense of belonging and mutual support.
2. Respect for Elders- (Paggalang sa Nakakatanda) Respect for elders is a fundamental value in Filipino culture. simply shown through gestures such as the "mano po" at "po" at "opo".
3. Utang na Loob- (Debt of Gratitude) Utang na loob refers to an inherent sense of gratitude that encourages Filipinos to give back and support family members in return, fostering a cycle of generosity and care within the family and society.
4. Bayanihan- (Community Spirit) Bayanihan reflects the spirit of communal unity and cooperation, reinforcing the importance of teamwork and solidarity.
5. Religiosity and Faith- Faith plays a significant role in Filipino family life that helps to strengthen family bonds
6. Education and Hard Work- Filipino families place a high value on education and hard work. Parents must ensure their children to receive a good education, seeing it as a path to a better future.
7. Hiya- (Sense of Shame) Hiya, or a sense of shame, encourages individuals to behave and promotes good behavior, integrity, and social harmony.
8. Kapwa- (Shared Identity) Kapwa, or shared identity, emphasizes the interconnectedness of people. This value fosters empathy, compassion, and collective responsibility.
9. Resilience- Filipino families are known for their resilience in the face of adversity the open support and solidarity within the family members to endure and overcome difficulties in life.
10. Joy and Celebration- Filipino families find joy in togetherness, celebrating life's milestones with enthusiasm and reinforcing their bonds and creating lasting memories.

Conclusion

Reminding the new generation of the Great Filipino Family Values is an essential task for parents and teachers. These values provide a moral framework and a sense of identity that can guide children throughout their lives. By imparting these values, we ensure that the rich cultural heritage of the Philippines continues to thrive, creating a society that is resilient, compassionate, and united. Let us take the time to teach, model, and celebrate these values with our children, ensuring they understand their importance and carry them forward into the future.

Offering a movie that values Filipino family culture, featuring the song "Abakada" by legendary musician Florante de Leon. It also addresses caring for special children and our elders, especially those facing Alzheimer's. This wholesome family – drama will surely capture the hearts of everyone, teaching people to forgive, to love and to respect, to understand, and to move on.

Movies are one of the easiest and most effective alternative learning experiences to convey messages to our children, allowing them to easily remember, connect with, and understand things. "Unspoken Letters" offers a unique opportunity to educate and inspire our school community about the value of family and the challenges of living with and understanding special children and PWDs. Each sibling character will teach us lessons that can help us become closer to our siblings and, especially, to our parents and loved ones.

By hosting this film screening and associated activities WE can strengthen family ties, promote cultural understanding, and advocate for inclusivity and support for all students.

We hope that you will support this proposal and join us in bringing "Unspoken Letters" to your school. Please do not hesitate to contact us at 09055242670 or email us at cm2709142025@gmail.com

UNSPOKEN LETTERS

Synopsis:

"Unspoken Letters" is a heartfelt drama that follows the journey of Felipa, the youngest sibling in a family who lives with a neurodiverse condition. Despite being seventeen years old, Felipa functions at the level of a seven-year-old child. She looks up to her older siblings, who are accomplished professionals, and dreams of following in their footsteps. However, the deep doubts the siblings harbor towards Felipa and their grudges against their father, whom they believe abandoned them, give them no reason to care about their family. Instead, they focus more on securing a better life for their heirs. The conflicts continue to escalate, and the carefully planned future of the siblings takes an unexpected turn when they discover that their father, Conrado, has been diagnosed with dementia.

As they delve deeper into their father's condition, they uncover hidden truths about their family's past. Along the way, they discover the "unspoken letters" of their mother that confront their doubts regarding their youngest sister, Felipa. They begin to understand who Felipa is in their lives and what really happened to their father from the time they believed he had abandoned the family. This revelation forces them to reassess their priorities and shift their focus from material success to fostering love and care for their ailing father. Through this emotional journey, they rediscover their respect and appreciation for their parents' unselfish love and guidance.

"Unspoken Letters" not only explores the challenges faced by families dealing with neurodiverse individuals but also emphasizes the importance of gratitude and humility towards our loved ones. It serves as a reminder that before we achieve success and become professionals, it is our parents who guide and teach us the foundations of communication, education, and resilience. The film also takes us back to a time when conflict had not yet entered our minds.

The film encourages viewers to reflect on how easily we sometimes forget the lessons our parents imparted to us and to find ways to reconnect and care for our loved ones, especially when they need us the most. In this touching story, Felipa's intellectual disability teaches her siblings the most valuable lesson in life, and Conrado's journey with dementia serves as a catalyst that accidentally answers all the questions and doubts, leading to the family's healing, growth, and understanding of the power of love, forgiveness, and the true meaning of a family.

MESSAGES FROM OUR ACTORS TO DEPED

"Personally, I highly recommend our film, Unspoken Letters to all the students, teachers, parents to watch it, dahil talagang kapupulutan nila ng aral ang bawat character at situation dito, lalo ako bilang Nestor, maraming makakarelate... kaya sana maging katulad ng pagsuporta sa amin ng Private Schools Association ang ipagkaloob ng Public Schools sa amin mula sa lahat ng bumubuo ng DepEd, umaasa kami sa inyong pagsuporta sa aming pelikula. At maraming salamat po!"

- Tonton Gutierrez

"Katulad ng nasabi ko na dati po, kakaibang family drama ang hatid ng aming pelikula, dahil bawat character dito makaka-relate kayo at talagang marami naming sa sobra-sobrang suporta sa amin ng private school inaanyayahan din naming kayo sa DepEd (public schools) na suportahan nyo din po sana kami, dahil maraming aral na makukuha ang mga kabataan sa aming pelikula na Unspoken Letters"

- Simon Ibarra

"Ako kasi mapapintalaga sa mga project na tinatanggap at hindi basta-basta, kaya ng una pa lang na mabasa ko ang script ng Unspoken Letters naging malapit agad sa puso ko lalo sa bunso naming kapatid na si Felipa, dahil may kapatid din ako na may special needs na katulad nya kaya sobra akong nakarelate. Nakikita ko na malayo ang mararating ng pelikulang ito, hindi dahil sa isa ako sa gumanap, kundi dahil sa aral na dulot nito sa mga manunood, hindi lang para sa mga kabataan, maging sa magulang na katulad ko at sa mga guro. Kaya po para sa DepEd sana ay mapagbuksan nyo kami ng pintuan para makapasok sa mga public schools, dahil Malaki nag magiging impact nito sa mga mag-aaral at sa isang pamilya."

- Gladys Reyes

"Sa dami ng pelikula at role na binigay sa akin. Masasabi ko po na itong Unspoken Letters ang pinaka-makabuluhan sa lahat. Dahil ang mga aral na dulot nito. Kaya ng malaman ko na distribution kami sa private school, sabi ko talaga sana sa public din makarating, kasi talagang kailangan ng mga estudyante at kabataan sa ngayon ng panggising, kaya sa mga SDS ng DepEd nanawagan kami na sana masuportahan nyo ang aming pelikula."

- Orlando Sol

"Bilang baguhang artista, katrangan ko po na mapasama sa pelikulang ito at gampanan ang role bilang "young nestor" at bilang kabataan din sigurado po ako na hindi magsisisi ang DepEd kapag sinuportahan nyo ang aming movie, kasi maraming aral na mapupulot ang katulad kong kabataan sa pelikulang ito."

- MJ Manuel

"Ang role ko po bilang Felipa ay nagpamulat sa akin sa kalagayan ng mga may "special needs" kahit po acting lang sya, pero ramdam ko ang hirap ng sitwasyon nila at ang pangangailangan ng malawakang pang-unawa. Kayao po sa DepEd sana masuportahan ninyo ang aming pelikula na maipalabas at mapanuod ng mga kabataan sa ngayon, kasama narina ng mga magulang at mga guro kasi Malaki po ang impact na maaring idulot nito sa bawat isa, mga aral na di nila makakalimutan ng basta-basta."

"Nang binaggit sa akin na may gustong gumamit ng aking kanta para sa pelikula, ang sabi ko, anong klaseng pelikula kasi bilang musician gusto ko mapanatili ang kalidad ng aking matatawag na obra. Kaya ng sabihin sa akin na "family drama" at may involved na "special child" kaagad akong pumayag lalo na sa mga artista na gaganap. Kaya ng mapanuod ko ang first preview ng Unspoken Letters kasama ang aking anak, hindi ko pinagsisihan na ipinagamit ko ang "Abakada" sa pelikulang ito. Kaya sa taga DepEd pagkakataon na natin ito na maibalik ang kultura ng pamilyang Pilipino sa pamamagitan ng movie na ito, kaya sana masuportahan natin ang Unspoken Letters para mapanuod ng maraming kabataan sa ngayon."

THE DIRECTORS
THE WRITER
THE PRODUCER

MARIO "GAT" ALAMAN – The producer, writer and director of the film Unspoken Letters focuses most of his works and creations on family-centered stories that are wholesome, educational, and deeply rooted in Filipino culture and life. His goal is to produce films that highlight family, friendship, parenthood, and childhood, often inspired by his own happy upbringing and family life. Born on January 24, 1981, in Sabang, Naic, Cavite, he is the second youngest of eight siblings. Unspoken Letters marks his directorial debut, as he primarily worked as a writer for most of Utmost Creatives' films, including the international film The Lease and Genius Teens, along with several short and educational films. Among the three directors involved, he is the least experienced in directing, but his ability to craft compelling stories with intricate plots and unexpected twists captivates audiences. During the filming process, his primary responsibility was to refine the script with precision, ensuring that production stayed on schedule while maintaining the film's creative vision.

ANDY ANDICO – A veteran Assistant Director, he has worked on numerous local and international films, including Bourne Legacy (2012) and Eternal Fist (1992), both filmed in the Philippines. His impactful works, such as Dolphy's Father, Jejemon and Metro Manila, have made a significant mark on the industry. A humble yet highly skilled professional, he worked wonders during filming by efficiently managing clustering to align with budget constraints and talent schedules. Coming from the renowned Dolphy Quizon clan, his expertise and experience bring immense value to any production. Hiring him as Associate Director was truly an answered prayer for all film producers.

PAOLO BERTOLA – is an Italian director and scriptwriter, specialized in digital visual effects and post-production. His passion for cinema was born when he was still a child, passionate about comics and visual arts in general, he has developed over the years his personal background and his way of storytelling, starting with the Normal / Super 8 film, 16 mm and 35 mm, then through analog systems and since the early 2000s he has specialized in digital production, where today he works both as a director and as a post-production and visual effects specialist. He is the "main director" of Unspoken Letters.
