To: Division Chiefs
Division Sports Officer
Division Partnership Focal Person
Officers of Bulacan School Sports Association
Representative from School Health Nutrition Unit
All Others Concerned

In line with our continuous efforts to explore innovative programs that promote physical fitness, mental wellness, and holistic development among learners, this Division is inviting concerned personnel to attend an exploratory meeting with Triple V. Toys Trading on July 10, 2025, 9:00 a.m., Conference Room, Third Floor, SDO Bulacan.

Triple V. Toys Trading is a Filipino-owned company committed to developing activities that foster creativity, physical wellness, and emotional well-being. Their Sandball Fit Program—featuring juggling and the Sandball Shot—has been designed to enhance learners' coordination, cognitive function, and social-emotional skills through purposeful, skill-based play.

The Exploratory Meeting aims to:

- present the Sandball Fit Program and its objectives;
- discuss its possible integration in Physical Education, wellness programs, and school activities;
- explore partnership opportunities for schools in the Division; and
- identify the program's potential benefits for both learners and teaching/non-teaching personnel.

Participants include Division Sports Officer, Division Partnership Focal Person, officers of Bulacan School Sports Association (BSSA), and representative from School Health and Nutrition Unit in-charge of Mental Health.

This letter serves as Travel Authority of all participants.

For queries and confirmation of attendance, please coordinate with the Social Mobilization and Networking Section through bryanamiel.dejesus@deped.gov.ph

For information and appropriate action.
