1. Assessment Literacy refers to the understanding, skills, and competencies teachers need to design, select, interpret, and use assessments effectively to improve student learning and instruction. The core components of Assessment Literacy are Understanding the Purpose of Assessment; Assessment Design and Development; Data Analysis and Interpretation; Feedback and Instructional Decision-Making; and Ethical and Fair Use of Assessment. An Assessment Literate Teacher must know why they are assessing (Understanding the Purpose of Assessment); know what, when, and where to assess (Assessment Design and Development); know how to use the assessment data (Data Analysis and Interpretation); know how to communicate test results (Feedback and Instructional Decision-Making); and know how to uphold test integrity (Ethical and Fair Use of Assessment). Hence, it is evident that this Schools Division Office, through the Curriculum and Implementation Division (CID), constructs test items where the alignment of classroom and national assessments is evident through PROJECT SULIT: Strategic and Useful Learning Instruments for Testing.
2. PROJECT SULIT aims to strengthen the capacity of teaching and teaching-related personnel by equipping them with the knowledge and skills to construct classroom assessment items aligned with the structure, format, and quality of those used in national and international large-scale assessments. Further, this seeks to promote uniformity in classroom item development, ensuring that local assessments effectively support learner readiness for national and international measures of learning outcomes.

3. PROJECT SULIT: Strategic and Useful Learning Instruments for Testing shall be implemented in the following Phases:

Phases	Activity
1	Meeting of the Core Group with the Education Program Supervisors on the work to be completed
2	Development/Preparations of Test Items across subject area across key Stages aligned to the National Assessments, such as Early Language Literacy, and Numeracy Assessment (ELLNA), and National Achievement Test (NAT); and International Assessments such as Programme for International Student Assessment (PISA), Southeast Asia Primary Learning Metrics (SEAPLM), and Trends in International Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS)
3	Submission of the Test Items to Education Program Supervisors for content and language evaluation
4	Field Validation
5	Finalization of the Test Items
6	Presentation of Project SULIT among schools

4. Attached herewith is the list of teaching and teaching-related personnel who are part of the construction of test items.

5. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
