DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 17, s. 2026

SECOND QUARTER MEETING OF EDUCATION PROGRAM SUPERVISORS AND PUBLIC SCHOOLS DISTRICT SUPERVISORS ON THE STRATEGIES,
METHODOLOGIES, IMPROVEMENT OF THE CURRICULUM
IMPLEMENTATION DIVISION

To: Assistant Schools Superintendents
Curriculum Implementation Division Chief
Education Program Supervisors
Public School District Supervisors
ALS and LRMDs Personnel
All Others Concerned

1. There is an importance of convening in the Curriculum Setting. Collaboration: Brings together diverse perspectives from educators and subject matter experts. Shared Vision: Helps establish common goals and understanding of curriculum objectives. Needs Assessment: Enables discussion on learner needs, societal requirements, and educational priorities. Expert Input: Taps into specialized knowledge for curriculum design and content validation. Problem-Solving: Facilitates dialogue to address challenges in curriculum implementation. These are the aspects of the importance of convening. To realize this, the Curriculum Implementation Division shall conduct the Second Quarter Meeting of Education Program Supervisors and Public Schools District Supervisors on the Strategies, Methodologies, and Improvement on April 27, 2026, 8:30AM at SDO Conference Hall, City of Malolos, Bulacan.
2. The activity aims to:
  - Enhance Instructional Leadership: Strengthen supervisors' skills in guiding teachers for improved teaching and learning outcomes.
  - Align with National Education Goals: Ensure supervisors understand and support DepEd's strategic priorities like the 5-point agenda.
  - Improve Monitoring and Evaluation: Equip supervisors with tools for effective program assessment and feedback mechanisms.
  - Foster Collaboration and Sharing: Encourage exchange of best practices among supervisors across divisions.
  - Address Learning Gaps: Focus on strategies tackling learning losses, especially post-pandemic challenges like those addressed by the Aral Program.
