2. Background and Rationale.

- 2.1. DepEd continues to use digital platforms, web-based tools, and online systems in teaching, learning, and administrative operations. As these tools become part of daily work, personnel play a critical role in protecting DepEd information, systems, and digital services.
- 2.2. To provide effective support, the Information and Communications Technology Service (ICTS) needs to understand the current practices, challenges, and training needs of DepEd personnel in relation to cybersecurity.
