SUBJECT: VIRTUAL MEETING ON THE DOWNLOADING OF FUNDS FOR COMPREHENSIVE RAPID LITERACY ASSESSMENT (CRLA) AND PHILIPPINE INFORMAL READING INVENTORY (PHIL-IRI) IN PREPARATION FOR MID-OF-SCHOOL-YEAR (MOSY) ASSESSMENT

Date: September 3, 2026

1. The Schools Division Office (SDO) of Bulacan remains committed to ensuring that every learner develops the foundational literacy competencies necessary for meaningful learning and lifelong success. In support of the Department of Education's learning recovery and literacy programs, the Comprehensive Rapid Literacy Assessment (CRLA) and the Philippine Informal Reading Inventory (Phil-IRI) serve as essential tools for determining learners' literacy levels, identifying specific learning gaps, and providing evidence to inform appropriate instructional interventions. In line with this, this Office shall conduct a virtual meeting on September 11, 2026, at 8:30 AM online. The meeting link shall be provided before the scheduled meeting.
2. Specifically, the meeting shall provide participants with the necessary information and guidance on the procurement of goods to be used in printing the CRLA and PHIL-IRI assessment tools.
3. Participants in this virtual meeting are education program supervisors, public schools district supervisors, and all elementary and secondary school heads. They are all expected to attend the virtual meeting for the entire duration and actively participate in the discussions and other activities.
4. Immediate and wide dissemination of, and strict compliance with, this Division Letter is hereby enjoined.
