DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 481 s. 2026

RIZAL 3000: A JOURNEY THROUGH HISTORY:
RESEARCH ON CONNECTING THE PAST AND SHAPING THE FUTURE

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
CID and SGOD Chiefs
Education Program Supervisors
Public Schools District Supervisors
Elementary & Secondary School Heads
All Division Office Unit Heads
All Teaching and Non-Teaching Personnel
All Others Concerned

1. The Schools Division of Bulacan recognizes the invaluable contributions of teachers and personnel in shaping learners, strengthening communities, and building the nation. As part of the Division's continuing efforts to foster appreciation, fellowship, and camaraderie within the education community, this Office shall conduct RIZAL 3000: A Journey Through History: Research on Connecting the Past and Shaping the Future, a developmental initiative that incorporates a simple research-based evaluation component to document participants' experiences, reflections, perceived learning, and appreciation of Philippine history and culture.

2. The activity also seeks to provide teachers with feedback and reflection activities to be administered before and after the theatrical experience to identify insights, observations, and lessons that emerge from the activity. Specifically, this activity aims to:

- a. Foster appreciation of Philippine history, culture, and national identity through a theatrical experience that highlights the life, works, and legacy of Dr. Jose Rizal;
- b. Provide teachers and personnel with opportunities to reflect on historical insights, values, and lessons that may be applied to their personal and professional lives;
- c. Gather participants' feedback, reflections, and perceived learning through activity evaluation instruments to document their experiences and insights; and
- d. Strengthen fellowship, camaraderie, and a shared sense of purpose among teachers and personnel of the Schools Division of Bulacan through a meaningful cultural and educational experience.

3. The activity shall be held at KB Gymnasium, Provincial Capitol Compound, City of Malolos, Bulacan, through two scheduled performances to accommodate participating teachers from the different schools and offices of the Schools Division of Bulacan.
