DIVISION MEMORANDUM

No. 500 s. 2026

BUILDING BELONGING: STRENGTHENING INCLUSIVE, SAFE, AND EQUITABLE LEARNING AND WORKING ENVIRONMENTS IN EDUCATION

To: Assistant Schools Division Superintendents
CID and SGOD Chiefs
Education Program Supervisors
Public Schools District Supervisors
Elementary & Secondary School Heads
All Division Office Unit Heads
All Teaching and Non-Teaching Personnel
All Others Concerned

1. In line with the Department of Education's commitment to Gender and Development (GAD), inclusive education, and the promotion of safe, respectful, and equitable learning and working environments, the Schools Division of Bulacan shall conduct a three-day GAD Training titled BUILDING BELONGING: Strengthening Inclusive, Safe, and Equitable Learning and Working Environments in Education on November 3–5, 2026, at Monte Vista Hotspring and Conference Resort, Pansol, Calamba, Laguna.
2. The training aims to strengthen the awareness, understanding, and practical application of gender-responsive principles among Division Office personnel by promoting gender sensitivity, respect for diversity, inclusive communication, safe workplace relationships, and psychosocial wellness. Through facilitated discussions, reflective workshops, and participatory activities, the training shall encourage participants to translate GAD awareness into individual and organizational practices.
3. Specifically, the activity aims to:
 - a. Enhance participants' understanding of gender, diversity, inclusion, gender equality, and equity;
 - b. Strengthen awareness of safe spaces, gender-based violence prevention, gender-fair communication, and respectful workplace behavior;
 - c. Promote empathy, mutual respect, psychological safety, and inclusive relationships among personnel;
 - d. Support mental health, psychosocial wellness, and self-care in public service;
 - e. Encourage the integration of gender-responsive principles into office programs, activities, policies, and workplace practices; and
 - f. Establish individual and collective commitments toward sustaining a safe, inclusive, equitable, and gender-responsive Division Office.
4. The training matrix shall cover sessions on gender and development in the workplace; respect, diversity, and inclusion; safe spaces and the prevention of gender-based violence; gender-fair and inclusive communication; mental health and psychosocial wellness; and empathy and inclusive workplace relationships. Workshops and activities shall provide opportunities for participants to reflect on workplace practices, identify gender-related concerns, and formulate practical actions and commitments.

5. The following schedule, announcements, and logistical arrangements shall be observed by all participants:

a. Day 1: November 3, 2026 (Tuesday)

- The call time at the Schools Division Office shall be 5:30 AM, with the buses scheduled to depart at 6:00 AM. Participants are advised to arrive promptly to facilitate attendance checking and orderly boarding.
- The first meal to be served at the venue shall be morning snacks. The formal program shall commence at 10:00 AM.
- Participants shall enter through Gate 202 of Monte Vista Hotspring and Conference Resort, as this entrance provides access to the Conference Building and the designated parking area for buses and private vehicles.
- The prescribed attire for Day 1 shall be the GAD shirt distributed during the National Women's Month observance last March 2026. Participants who do not have the said shirt shall wear any appropriate purple-colored top. Shorts shall not be worn.

b. Day 2: November 4, 2026 (Wednesday)

- Participants shall wear comfortable and appropriate clothing suitable for outdoor activities. They are advised to consider the nature of the scheduled activities and bring any personal necessities required for their comfort and safety.
- As part of the GAD Training, a Basketball Exhibition shall be conducted titled "COURT FOR ALL: A GAD Basketball Exhibition for Respect and Inclusive Workplace Relationships" to promote teamwork, mutual respect, inclusivity, and positive workplace relationships among Division Office personnel. The activity shall emphasize sportsmanship, cooperation, and respect for all participants, regardless of gender or background. It is intended not only as a recreational activity but also as an opportunity to demonstrate a gender-responsive and inclusive workplace.
- Two teams shall compete in a friendly exhibition game, with players drawn from a mix of personnel representing three functional divisions.
- The names of the identified players shall be assigned to either team through draw lots to ensure fairness and impartiality in team formation.
- The evening shall feature a socialization night titled, "GAD in Action: Purity in Diversity" with the attire theme "Creative White." Participants are encouraged to express their creativity by styling and combining white clothing and accessories they already own. In keeping with the principle of simplicity and mindful spending, participants are not expected to purchase new clothes or accessories for the occasion. Creativity, rather than expense, shall be the emphasis.
- As part of the socialization night, participants shall participate in a creative walk or parade, showcasing their interpretation of the Creative White theme. All participants are encouraged to take part in the activity in a manner that promotes enjoyment, confidence, respect, and inclusivity. A special award, "Creative White of the Night," shall be given to one male and one female participant selected from the individual walk and parade.

- Following the individual walk, each functional division shall nominate two pairs of representatives to participate in the GAD Show, featuring a creative runway walk, a TikTok dance craze of their choice, and a brief question-and-answer with the members of the Division Office top management serving as judges. At the conclusion of the GAD Show, three pairs shall be declared winners based on the established judging criteria. The activity aims to promote creativity, camaraderie, inclusivity, and positive workplace relationships in a fun and engaging manner.
- After the GAD Show, the program shall continue with a Night of Fun and Entertainment featuring a Stand-Up Comedian, providing participants with an opportunity to relax, enjoy, and strengthen fellowship among colleagues.
- Participants are encouraged to make use of their existing white attire and accessories and are reminded that creativity, simplicity, and active participation shall be valued over the expense of their outfits. No participant shall be required to purchase new clothing or accessories for the activity.

c. Day 3: November 5, 2026 (Thursday)

- Participants may wear clothing of their choice, provided it is decent, appropriate, and comfortable for the sessions and closing activities.
6. All participants shall observe punctuality and active participation throughout the three-day training. They are expected to attend the sessions and workshops, accomplish the required evaluation instruments, and contribute to the reflection and commitment-setting activities. Participants shall also observe proper conduct, respect individual differences, and maintain a safe and inclusive environment throughout the activity.
 7. Expenses relative to the conduct of the activity shall be charged against the Division Gender and Development (GAD) Fund, subject to the applicable budgeting, accounting, procurement, and auditing rules and regulations.
 8. This Memorandum shall serve as the Travel Authority for the participation of the identified Division Office personnel in the activity, subject to existing DepEd policies and applicable travel and administrative requirements.
 9. Immediate and wide dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
